Since 1934, Hawk Mountain Sanctuary is an international center for raptor conservation, education, observation and research. Our all-ages learning center and 2,600-acre wildlife sanctuary is open nearly every day of the year. From August through December, you can join us in the time-honored tradition of watching for migrant hawks, eagles and falcons that soar past our scenic overlook.

Jesus gathers his people together and protects them from the ravages of sin and death. God's love is like a mother hen: who gathers and protects us. Martin Luther, in his Large Catechism, summarizes God's gathering, protecting love in this way: "There is on earth a little holy flock or community of pure saints under one head, Christ.

All the people, birds, animals, and fish, were under the king, and had to obey him. His favourite messenger was the hawk, as he could travel so quickly. The hawk served the king faithfully for several years, and when he wanted to retire, he asked what the king proposed to do for him, as very soon he would be too old to work any more.
