"Wealth and Power offers everything readers might expect from its two eminent authors. It is both sweeping and specific, authoritative and lively, sympathetic and critical, offering the perspective of both the hedgehog and the fox.

Wealth and Power by Orville Schell, John Delury

The proposition "wealth equals power" could be misleading. Equality is a symmetric relationship, so this proposition is logically equivalent to "power equals wealth". If wealth and power are not identical, a question seems to be settled, but this settlement could avoid a more specific question. Wealth is one form of power, a subset of power.
